As an international organisation, we value diversity and we are dedicated to a culture of growth and innovation, creating an environment where everyone can develop their skills and fulfil their potential.

What your key responsibilities will be:

- Work in close collaboration with System and Business Analysts to understand needs of the customers
- Develop core functionality of the software to allow System Analysts and Software Implementation specialists to provide solutions under supervision of the Head of Development or a Senior Developer
- Collaborate with other specialists to create optimum software
- Make revision of the source code, developed by other developers, programmers and software engineers
- Create technical documentations and manuals on the developed software modules
- Support automation for configuration of the system in test, staging, and production environments

Skills and experience we expect from you:

- Degree in computer science or electrical and electronic engineering or automation
- Knowledge of C++ and/or Perl/Python and/or REACT/JavaScript, MS SQL server
- Minimum 2 years of development experience
- Experience and willingness to work in and with international teams
- Fluency in English language, both spoken and written
- Dedicated, flexible, responsible, and creative team player

What we offer:

- Excellent team-oriented, dynamic and international working environment
- Challenging, engaging and varied tasks
- Personal and technical skills development with certified training
- Modern workspace close to Skopje City Park
- Travel possibilities
- 25 paid vacation days
- Private health insurance
- Free parking space

If you see yourself in this role, let us know in an e-mail, we would like to get to know you.
